Lembach Austria
Observed by Stapo and the fine Upper Austria Gendarmerie officers played a really ineffable psychodelic rock-bano with dangerous forms of soundscrapes. Neighbour and several people gathering mushrooms was deeply irritated and confused. The legal acting gendarmerie officer noted more than 40 unordinary people, which all told to be musicians of the band. Only one of the attendee could be identified as auditor. The house-keep. E.G. Matschurko told the officer to be the owner of half of the Mühlviertel bass player Lazy Laser and fender guitarist Werner Katzmayer tried to abscond, while wellknown Burli Richard Heuberger could be apprehended at the outhouse (picture).

APA posted, that Linz artist E.P.C.Kirch also was seen with his saz and an old bass-guitar set as flute-adi Nimmerfall. Kids an young people should be hold far of Oberm. Beware of the band ! Who knows them ?
